

Recreation fees are an investment in outdoor recreation. Current and future generations will benefit as 95% of the funds are reinvested in the facilities and services that visitors enjoy, use, and value.

Accomplishments Provided with Recreation Fees on the Ochoco National Forest:

Campgrounds:

- Completed regular operations and maintenance tasks on fee campgrounds:
 - Provided utilities and sanitation facilities.
 - Maintained health and safety signs.
 - Replaced wooden campsite markers posts.
 - Maintained or replaced picnic tables and perimeter fences.
 - Maintained fire rings and cleaned fire pits.
 - Completed hazard tree identification and removal prior to season opening for all campgrounds.

Recreation Rentals:

- Completed routine operations and maintenance work on cabins.
- Replaced entry and interior rugs at both cabins.
- Maintained high-occupancy rentals by completing plumbing, fixture, and general repairs.

Special Feature

Ochoco Ranger Rental is a two-story house showcasing the rustic architectural style of the 1940s. Initially constructed specifically as the residence for the Ochoco District Ranger by the Civilian Conservation Corps and the US Forest Service, today, the Ranger House is available for overnight rental. This popular year-round cabin provides convenient access to Walton Lake, Big Summit Prairie, and of course, the beautiful Ochoco National Forest.
